

I cannot imagine what a 3 hour flight would be like if I had to endure listening to someone babble on their cell phone the entire flight. I understand if there is an emergency and someone needs to use their phone, but not just to catch up on the latest gossip with family/friends. Please do not allow personal cell phone use during flights.